Six (6) hours EILA credit

Workshop based on The Kids Left Behind (Barr & Parrett, 2007) which has been nominated for the Education Book of the Year.

SESSION DESCRIPTION:

Based on the best selling book, The Kids Left Behind, attendees will learn how high poverty/high performing schools are achieving remarkable success. Proven approaches will be identified and analyzed with special emphasis placed on leadership strategies used. Effective strategies will be modeled and mini work/discussion sessions scheduled for participants to focus on concept application and self-evaluation of their school or district.

KASA Associate, Retired or Student members may attend at a cost of $50 and non-KASA members at $125. No registration fee for Active KASA members.

Presenter: Dr. Robert Barr

Former director of Teacher Education at Indiana University, Dean of Education at Boise State University and Oregon State University, Dr. Barr has served as a consultant to a number of the nation's poorest schools and school districts to help them improve the achievement of poor and minority students. He has presented his research to legislative education committees in Kentucky, Texas, Indiana and Oregon. Dr. Barr has appeared on Firing Line with William Buckley, been interviewed on ABC's World News Tonight with Peter Jennings and debated Bill O'Reilly on the O'Reilly Factor. He is the author or coauthor of 12 books.

Order Dr. Barr's book, The Kids Left Behind, at a cost of $26. Your pre-orderd copy will be available upon arrival October 31. Lunch with Dr. Barr is available at a cost of $20 per person.
